

ENGLAND'S POOR.

Relief Proposed by Salvation Army General Booth.

COMMENTS ON HIS NEW BOOK.

We suggest the establishment of houses of refuge all over the kingdom and the organization of bands to seek out the unfortunate and minister to their wants—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The press comment at great length upon the plan outlined by Salvation Army Gen. Booth, in his book "Darkest England and the Way Out of It," for the relief of the miserable poor of England. The opinion is generally favorable to a trial of the scheme. The least encouraging article on the subject is that of The Times, and even this is only mildly in opposition. The book has made a profound impression upon all classes, and to many it is a revelation of a condition of affairs undreamed of by them.

No one can read the work without feeling an uncomfortable sense of impending disaster, and it is perhaps this which leads nearly every one to cry out to Gen. Booth, in effect, "Go ahead and try your plan, and we will do all we can to help you." The suggestion of the author is, in brief, the establishment of houses of refuge all over the kingdom, and the organization of volunteer bands to seek out and rescue the unfortunate, and minister to their minds and bodies until employment is found. There are many ingenious details in the scheme, which could only have been devised by a man thoroughly experienced in the needs of the poor, and whose whole heart was in the cause.

Dillon and O'Brien in Paris.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien witnessed the debate in the chamber of deputies yesterday. The president, on observing their presence, assigned them seats in the hall.

Mr. O'Brien was interviewed and said that he attached no importance to the reports of contentions said to disturb the Irish societies in the United States. Mr. O'Brien remarked that such reports were always just before the setting out of an Irish mission to that country. Members of the delegation, he said, would take no part in rivalries of any kind; they went as the representatives of Mr. Parnell and the entire party in Ireland, and he felt certain they would have the support of the Irishmen in America, and that of the whole American people.

Gladstone's Popularity.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Gladstone's journey from Hawarden to Edinburgh has been a triumphal tour. The popular demonstrations at every place where an opportunity to greet him was afforded, were so remarkable as to draw expressions of surprise from the Grand Old Man himself, accustomed as he is to crowds and applause. Much of this enthusiasm, no doubt, is evoked by admiration for Mr. Gladstone's personal qualities and the desire to do homage to a great Englishman soon, in course of nature, to pass away; yet the Liberals are confident that it also indicates an increased popularity of the political platform which their leader presents.

Baron Wissmann's Position.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—Yesterday Baron Wissmann lunched with the kaiser. He has been settled that Herr Von Soden, governor of German East Africa, will avoid interference with the administration of the government there until the expiration of Baron Wissmann's appointment as imperial commissioner to East Africa. When that event occurs Herr Von Soden will assume the governorship of the German-African littoral, while Baron Wissmann will be assigned to the governorship of the central lake district.

Russia's Influence.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—M. Hitrovo, Russian ambassador to Roumania, has formed a Russian club at Bucharest. He is known to be constantly intriguing to extend Russia's influence in the country, but until now his operations have been conducted in secret. The formation of a club which is to be the headquarters of the Pan-Slavist movement is regarded as evidence that Russia believes her influence is now too strong to be successfully resisted by King Charles' government.

Advice to the Khedive.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Sir Samuel Baker, the noted explorer and authority on African affairs, starts for Egypt on Wednesday, bearing Lord Salisbury's commission to advise the khedive in regard to the best method of dealing with the rebellion and famine in the Sudan.

The Arbeiter Zeitung appeals to the delegates to the miners' congress at Vienna, beginning next Sunday, to agitate the demand for the eight-hour day.

Russia will begin immediately the construction of a new railroad between Bialystok, Poland, and the Austrian frontier, to be available for the mobilization of troops in case of war.

A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

An Engineer Blown from His Engine Into the River.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—At 11 a. m. engine No. 1 belonging to the Monongahela connecting railroad, while pushing a train of empty cars along a side track near the casting house of the Eliza furnace (Jones & McLaughlin's) on Second avenue, exploded her boiler with terrific force. Engineer Flaherty, aged 25, was blown from the engine cab into the Monongahela river, a distance of 300 feet. His body has not yet been recovered.

Fireman Thomas McGuff, aged 21, was hurled against the brick side of the casting house and instantly killed. Conductor James Foraker, 50 years old, was perhaps fatally scalded. Brakeman Joseph Ferry was frightfully cut and scalded about the head and shoulders, but may recover. Thomas Clark, a laborer, had his legs broken and back injured.

Several men at work in the furnace were slightly injured by escaping steam and flying debris. What remains of the wrecked engine stands reared upon end. The steam dome, sandbox and stack have not been found. The boiler is split almost the entire length and flattened out like a fan. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Railroad Sold.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.—The St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas railway, known as the Cotton Belt line, consisting of 580 miles of main track and branches in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, was sold at noon yesterday for $5,000,000 to Louis Fitzgerald, representing the bondholders of the road. The sale was only formal, and a new company will be organized as soon as the sale is confirmed, with receiver S. W. Fordyce as president, and Mr. B. Doddridge as general manager.

Escaped from Jail.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Oct. 21.—A most daring jail delivery took place last evening, when six of the toughest criminals sawed through the iron bars of the second floor tier of the county prison and lowered themselves by a rope to the ground. The men who escaped were E. D. Reynolds, sentenced Saturday to six years in the penitentiary for shooting at a conductor who ejected him from a train; Dan O'Day, sentenced to two and one-half years for larceny; Thomas Burns and Charles Burns.

Arrested for Passing Counterfeit Money.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Oct. 21.—A registered mail pouch was stolen on Friday morning from the fast mail when en route from St. Paul to Milwaukee. Later on the pouch was found at Brookfield Junction, rifled of its contents.

"After Dark."

There are a number of striking features in "After Dark." The stage setting is of the most elaborate description, with all the most recent ideas of realism, and with a completeness of detail that has rarely been equaled. In the great river scene an immense tank of water is used. The heroine is thrown into the water, when Old Tom, the hero of the play, comes dashing upon the scene in his boat and dives in time to save her. Another realistic scene is the underground railway. A train loaded with passengers is about to be wrecked on an obstruction, when Old Tom attracts the engineer's attention and saves the train. Perhaps the most striking scene represents a London music hall by gas light. There is an elevated stage on which a vaudeville entertainment is given by Sherman and Morrissey, and Kelly and Murphy, the pugilists, and other clever people.—Milwaukee News.

At opera house next Saturday night. Reserved seat tickets now on sale at Nelson's.

OBITUARY.

Miss Mary Belle Aikman, who passed away some two months since, was an earnest follower of Christ ever since her obedience to him several months before her death. With her it was not the race of the mighty, but that of the weak, which reminds us that the race is not always to the strong. No believer ever gave better experience of the comforting and sustaining power of God in affliction. E. S. S.
